JUDGE LANDIS ATTENDS PARTY FOR CRIPPLED

"Treasure Child in Place of His Picture" Is Plea of Judge Comerford

That there is music in sleigh bells, tamborines, triangles, and drums was exhibited at the crippled children's party held in the Sherman Park field house last Thursday evening, when the orchestra from the Fallon school, one of the public schools maintained for crippled children of the south side of Chicago, gave the opening numbers on the program. Crippled children from all parts of the south side sat in the section reserved for handicapped and afflicted youngsters.

Emotional satisfaction gained from helping the crippled children at their own party repaid the audience more than the applause handed out to make-believe tragedy in grand opera, according to the Hon. Frank Comerford, judge of the circuit court, who spoke to the children of their advantage in being the crippled of America instead of the crippled children of some foreign nation. "Foreign nations, or more specifically in France, the people treasure the painting of the boy in ragged clothing, but they forget the hundreds of boys who are living images of the picture," Judge Comerford explained, when he comforted the children by showing them that where their burdens were greatest, they became the clearest images of the Master.

Urging the need of playgrounds for the children throughout the city, Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, the baseball czar, contended that payment would be exacted by the coming generation for deprivations that were rightfully theirs in childhood. "Children may not have a correct sense of justice, but they have a keen sense of injustice. Injustice is a weak foundation on which to build strong manhood," argued Judge Landis. Praise for the work of the teachers in the schools for the crippled children, he explained, was not earned in the hours and sympathy expended by the teachers, but in the fact that the instruction given was enabling handicapped youngsters to be self-sustaining. This interest in helping the children to help themselves was also expressed in the talk made by Michael L. Igoe, south park commissioner, who urged the consideration of fairness in legislative dealings for all measures pertaining to children and the needs of educational facilities for all classes.

Camp life for the crippled children was discussed by Dr. Frank G. Bruner, superintendent of the south side crippled children's association and Mrs Prouty Robinson, principal of the Fallon school for crippled children. A musical program included a piano solo by Marshall Forsberg, a student of the Fallon high school, and selections by a group of pupils from the Woodlawn conservatory of music, 6154 Maryland ave. Miss Marie A. Ihde, president of the Woodlawn conservatory of music, was at one time a pupil in the Fallon school.

Hearing of the party given for the crippled children, Dawson H. Skeen, president of the Dawson H. Skeen Co., sent to the park enough ice cream to serve all of the crippled children who were present, and Capt. William L. Heptig of the board of trade, volunteered his services for the management of the transportation of the children in comfortable automobiles to and from the party.

To keep one child in the summer camp for four weeks, the members of the Sherman Park Woman's club presented $15 to the fund for crippled children, and promised more help before the close of the summer season.

PASTOR CELEBRATES 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS ORDINATION

BISHOP McGRATH SINGS MASS HONORING FR. FIELDING

Honored by solemn high mass, attended by many church dignitaries, the Rev. James K Fielding, organizer and pastor of St. Justin Martyr church, 7035 Honore st, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood Sunday.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph F. McGrath, bishop of Baker City, Ore., preached the sermon and the Rev. Francis Keefe, assistant pastor of St Justin Martyr, acted as master of ceremonies. The Rev. Thomas Small, of Our Lady of Good Council church, officiated as deacon, and the Rev. Edward F. Rice, of Our Lady of Peace church, as sub-deacon.

Father Fielding

On the preceding Sunday members and children of the parish celebrated the occasion with an entertainment in the Raster school auditorium. Speakers were Attorney Patrick H. O'Donnell, Father Rice, Father Small, and D. E. Murray, principal of the Raster school, all of whom are friends of Father Fielding. A purse and numerous other gifts were presented to Father Fielding as tokens of esteem from the church members.

Father Fielding was born April 20, 1871, in Mooncoin, County Kilkenny, Ireland. His classical studies were taken at St. Kieran's College, Kilkenny, and philosophy, at St. John's university, Waterford, Ireland.

In 1895 he came to this country and was appointed to St Thomas the Apostle church, where he remained for three years until he was transferred to St. James' church. After two years of service there he went to St Dominic's church. Four years later he became pastor of Corpus Christi church, where he remained eight years.

Father Fielding was appointed to organize the parish of St Justin Martyr on July 1, 1916. The first mass was celebrated five weeks later, August 6, 1916, in the assembly hall of the Raster school. On July 1, 1917, the cornerstone of the church was laid by Msgr. E. A Kelly.

The parish has grown rapidly and at present owns four builings. In addition to the church there are the rectory, the school, and the convent, all of which are monuments to Father Fielding's unceasing work in the building up of the church.

ST. RITA CARNIVAL TO RUN TO JUNE 28

St. Rita open air carnival is being held at 63rd st. and Washtenaw ave. nightly. The bright lights and the many attractions, including the dance out in the open, are attracting thousands from all over Chicago. The closing night of the festival has been extended to Saturday, June 28.

The carnival is being conducted to raise funds for the erection of a new convent for the sisters who teach the St. Rita parochial school at 62nd st. and Washtenaw ave. Marquette Manor has experienced such a rapid growth that present quarters are inadequate to house the many sisters required to instruct the children. After the carnival ends, plans will be made for the erection, at 62nd st. and Fairfield ave., of the new St. Rita convent. Very Reverend J. F. Green, O. S. A. is pastor of St. Rita parish.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOLS OPEN IN TWO WEEKS

Religious Training to be Combined With Music and Play

Daily vacation Bible schools will open Monday, June 30, at several West Englewood churches. Instruction in Bible history will be combined with music, supervised play and handicraft work during the morning hours. In addition, outings are planned for the pleasure of the pupils.

At Grace Evangelical church, 60th and Albany sts, the class hours of 9 to 12 o'clock will be divided into two periods. During the first, Bible stories, music and outdoor play will occupy the attention of the children. Manual training for the boys, and sewing for girls are planned for the second period. Picnics are also promised during the five weeks' duration of the school.

Children of all denominations are eligible to attend the school, eighty-five having been enrolled in 1923. Funds for its support are furnished by the church, and no tuition is charged the pupils. Mrs. A. B. Horth, 3019 W 55th st, and Mrs. C. L. Horn, 6536 Whipple st., will assist the pastor, the Rev. Robert C. Stanger, on the teaching force.

An "All Bible School" is to be introduced at the Marquette Park Presbyterian church, 65th st. and California ave, under the direction of the pastor, the Rev L. W. Almy. The instructors will include Mrs. Edgar Foss, 6416 Sacramento ave.; Mrs. E. G. Schultz, 6343 Francisco ave.; Miss Marion Waylett, 6314 Albany ave.; and Mrs. Ernest Beler, 6515 Whipple st.

Because of the lack of proper equipment for vocational training, the usual manual training work will not be attempted. Instead, boys will make battle axes, crowns, and other essentials necessary for the dramatization of Bible stories. Costumes for the Biblical characters will be designed by the girls of the school. Classes will begin June 30 and continue four weeks, meeting from 9 to 11 o'clock five days a week.

The Rev. Claude V. King, pastor of the Chicago Lawn Presbyterian church, 62nd st. and St. Louis ave., expects his church to co-operate with the First Methodist Episcopal church of Chicago Lawn, St. Louis ave. and 63rd pl., in opening a vacation school. Arrangements are not yet complete, and it has not been decided at which church the school will be held.

Such a school may be opened at the Ogden Park Methodist church, 68th st. and Loomis blvd, but no definite decision has been made on the matter.

TO UNVEIL SWEDISH SCIENTIST'S STATUE

Twenty thousand Americans of Swedish birth or extraction will take part in the dedication of the monument of Emanuel Swedenborg, to be unveiled Saturday, June 28, at Lincoln Park. The statue, erected by Swedish-Americans of Cook county and vicinity, has been placed near that of Karl Von Linne, a relative and contemporary of the scientist.

Swedenborg a son of Bishop Jesper Swedberg of the Swedish church, was born January 29, 1688 at Stockholm, Sweden. Showing a liking for scientific studies at an early age, he entered the University of Upsala, Sweden, graduating in 1710. Study under Sir Isaac Newton and four years of travel and study in Holland and Germany followed. Before his return to Sweden in 1715 he had made fourteen inventions, including the submarine, machine gun, flying machine, and a steam engine. His book, "Atomic Theory," published in 1719, was the first of a number of scientific volumes.

The Swedish minister to the United States, the Swedish Council of Chicago, several senators and congressmen, and other notables, are expected to take part in the memorial program.

Commencement days are approaching for the grade, high school, and college students. Wrapped up in the sensation that is created by the honor of graduation one after another feels an inward ambition to continue the work that has brought the individual to his commencement in one course of work.

CHALLENGE YOUR SPRING AMBBITIONS

Vacation, rest, and a diversion of interests during the summer months, often decreases the enthusiasm that commencement has kindled.

Financial opportunities, social disadvantages, and the feeling of independence among the wage earners inject the attitude of procrastination into the dreams of advanced studies.

High school for the grade school graduate, and college for the high school senior should be a part of the plan for the future of each pupil who completes a grade or secondary course. Night school offers a splendid opportunity for the person occupied with a daytime position.

American citizenship will be bettered only through educational and cultural improvement. Higher education has not failed because a small percentage of its numbers have erred, any more than religion has waned because the church harbors both sinner and saint.

As future progenitors of a race that will uphold the standards of American democracy it is the duty of every young man and woman to acquire new knowledge each day, so that the growing generation will constantly advance to meet the changing problems of the times.

This may be your opportunity, graduate of a specific course, to strengthen your decision in regard to a continuance of studies. Should you lose the right moment, you may lose all.

"Tie up the dog before he bites," is a good maxim to follow at the time when the hot summer days are approaching, and rabies are more commonly found among the canine groups. Hardly a week passes in which there are not two or three reports of dog bites at the local police station. Reports have become so numerous that they have reached the commonplace by the frequency of their occurrence. Within the last week the number of reports has practically doubled.

AVOID COMING TRAGEDIES

Whether or not the majority of cases carry with them only slight injuries that are soon forgotten, the danger of a severe case of hydrophobia is always imminent. For the sake of the one who may have to endure the horrors of the tragedy that accompanies such an illness, which results in the most pitiful death, it is up to the individual owner of a dog to see that his pet is either kept tied up or muzzled if in good health, or, if suspected of rabies, put to death.

Responsibility rests not only with owners of dogs, since many of the bites reported have been from stray dogs roaming about the neighborhood. Disposal of stray dogs as well as the examination of the family pet would safeguard pedestrians as well as the children who have a right to play out of doors.

Public security and health demands individual attention for this menace as the hot days approach. It is up to you as a good citizen to assume a part of the responsibility of safeguarding the welfare of your own family and that of your neighbor by seeing that stray dogs are reported to authorities, before the report is necessitated through a bite, and it is your duty to see that your own dog is kept tied or muzzled if he is to remain as a pet in the family.

They say that in a single season, from April 15 to August 28, to be exact, a female fly may have five trillion progeny. To be exact again, 5,693,613,559,320. One fly buzzing about the window pane may seem unworthy of consideration, but with the astounding above figure before us, it becomes a potential swarm of pests of inconceivable proportions that is a serious menace to health and happiness. We forget just the number of germs one fly is supposed to be able to carry on its feet, but it's a good many. Multiply it, if you know it, by the string of digits above in case you are good at arithmetic and see if you can't calculate how many sick babies, and cases of illness in adults, may not be directly traceable to that one original fly.

THE LITTLE FLY

The season is still young and fly swatters inexpensive. The action this little treatise points toward should be obvious.

A surprised populace is shocked that some of the most educated have become most criminal. Was it not so in the age of Ivan, of Pericles, of Louis XIV, and even of Elizabeth—climacteric in literature? "Who shall deliver us from the body of this death?" Paul writes: "The law of the spirit of life made me free." The Law of Christ's Spirit brings heathenism into the power and authority of a new life. "Knowledge puffs up; love builds." God guards developmentals with dynamic laws. Social and political cleavage mark spiritual abandonment to self-exaltation.

REVERENCE FOR LAW AND AUTHORITY

By Rev Will F Shaw, Pastor of Ashland Church of Christ

President King says: "Characteristic of our times is a lack of the sense of law in the moral and spiritual world." Judge Ritter: "Human laws are good or bad as they agree with the law of God. Moral law was not created by legislative bodies." Even a Wall Street Journal writer once wrote: "If we are to enjoy rights inalienable, endowed by our Declaration of Independence, we must get back to definite teaching as part of our children's education. Ever righteousness exalts a nation; enough of quack religious and political cure-alls. Back to the commandments and the law, which is the beginning of wisdom."

Our Constitutional fathers, interpreters, and defenders all drank deeply of letter and spirit of law without injury to our heritage. They were legalists patriotic. We had fallen in strange straits, when a former Lieutenant-Governor of Kentucky said: "Who pleads obedience to parents, teachers, church, courts, law? Only the poor or friendless are sure of legal punishment. Everybody wants pleasures, comforts, pensions, without labor, economy, self-denial, justice, duty!"

Abraham Lincoln wrote: "Let reverence for law be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap—let it become the political religion of the nation."

Laws of gravitation, birth, assimilation, pulsation, growth, life, are not subjects of caprice. Bryce said the Roman Government lasted so long, for its people had legal-mindedness and conservatism, with intelligence. To the prophet pondering the law of the burning bush, God gave the law of Sinai. Solomon's climax is: "Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the whole of man." Playgrounds or factories, families or nations, run riot without law. Paul's success was in making the law of his being subject to the law of the Spirit of Christ. Any other clogs life's road with "the body of death."

Alfred the Great, dying, said: "Son, comfort the poor, shelter and protect the weak; with all thy might right that which is wrong. Govern thyself by law; then the Lord love thee, and God Himself, shall be thy reward." "Let every soul be subject to the powers that be . . . ordained of God."

A way to make your iron smaller

After you've been pushing an iron around your ironing board for an hour or two, that iron seems to grow larger and heavier with every push. LATE RALLY BARELY WINS FOR THOBURN

Junior Team's Two Runs in Last Inning Keeps Records Clean

Thoburn Juniors had an narrow escape from a defeat at the hands of Vincent M. E Saturday at Tuley Park, but the two runs they made after two were out in the last inning, raised their record to seven straight and kept them in the lead of the Church Athletic association league. The score was tied when Thoburn chalked up their two markers, and, when Vincent came back with one run in their half of the inning, Thoburn was still left with enough lead to allow them to nose out their opponents by the heavy score of 14 to 13.

Nearly all the scoring was made into big innings. After registering one run in the opening session, Vincent took advantage of Thoburn's five costly errors and the three hits and two passes Baldwin gave them to cross the plate seven times. Baldwin was taken out then and Brunner went to the mound. Thoburn went to the front, in their half of the fourth, by clustering their hits for eight runs, but their lead was short-lived as Vincent came back with four tallies. Thoburn's two runs in the fifth tied the count.

After Kalchbrenner and Harker were out in the seventh, which was scheduled to end the fray, Brunner swatted out a single. Imhoff walked for a walk. Anderson, next up, had a count of two strikes and three balls on him and then he connected with the final pitched ball. It sailed out into centerfield and his mates raced home.

Next Saturday's game is certain to be a hard one for Thoburn, as they will meet the hard hitting Englewood Presbyterians. The game will be played at Gage Park.

SPARKLERS IN TIE FOR FIRST IN B. C. LEAGUE

While the Dixie Line Wires laid off because of a bye on their schedule, the Sparklers trounced the Boys' Club four seniors and went into a tie for first place in the senior division of the local section of the Chicago Boys' Club league. St. Brendan's Triangles won 9 to 0 on a forfeit when the Second Presbyterians, their opponents, failed to put in appearance.

In the only game in the junior division, St. Brendan's Juniors romped over the Dixie Line Wire Juniors, 14 to 8.

GLASER WELCOMED ON RETURN FROM COAST

Frank Clark's featherweight Charlie Glaser, one of the top notch boys in his division in the world, and an Englewood product, has just returned from the coast where he engaged in five fights winning every one of them. Clark was more than pleased with the success of Charlie on the coast and he is ready to put his protege against any boy in the world at 126 pounds.

Glaser will probably be seen in action with one of the leading featherweights at East Chicago or Aurora in the near future.

Clark has also received many offers for Glaser's services from promoters in various parts of the country and if successful in his boy winning the contests which he has lined up he will be hot on the trail of Johnnie Dundee for the featherweight title.

Y. P. C. E. REORGANIZED IN BOYS' BALL LEAGUE

The Hamilton Ross Boosters, formerly known as the Young People's Club of Englewood, have joined the Boys' League and will have Ogden Park as their home grounds. The Boosters have added many stars to their lineup, among whom are: Simons, Irish, Sevelin and Hasan, of Englewood; Holstrum and Swanson of the champion Ogden Park Builders and Robbins, hard hitting outfielder of the Chicago Comets. The Boosters travel to Maywood Sunday to engage the Maywood Proviso Boosters. For games for June 29, July 4 and 6, call Ellie at Englewood 2943.

WILLIAM MEYER WINS HORSESHOE TITLE IN OGDEN PARK TOURNEY

JOHN LEONARD CARRIES OFF HONORS IN JUNIOR DIVISION

William M. Meyers of Ogden Park won the championship in the Ogden Park Horseshoe club's invitation tournament Sunday on the Ogden Park courts by defeating Herman Simons, 21-17, 14-21, 21-20 in the finals Sunday. The match was hard fought and both players showed brilliant form. With the score tied at one game apiece the last match was bitterly contested.

George Stone of Ogden won third place by defeating C. E Wilson of Wells Park, 21-14, 17-21, 21-17.

In the junior singles finals, John Leonard of Ogden Park, won the title by upsetting Ernest Proger of Ogden Park, 21-14, 21-18, 21-9.

Frank Breading and Robert Miller won the doubles honors by winning two straight games from George Stone and J. A. Pieske, 21-14, 21-5.

The tournament was held for the purpose of lining up the park's entries in the South Park's horseshoe tournament to be held this Saturday. The seniors will toss the ringers at Ogden Park and the junior followers of the game will use the Hamilton Park courts.

ENGLEWOOD PALS WIN FIFTH STRAIGHT GAME

Englewood Pals won their fifth consecutive game from the Whatnots at Ogden Park, Sunday by a 13 to 8 score. Heavy hitting by Barrett and Ryan featured the play. In four trips to the plate Barrett drove out two doubles and a homer for the Pals and Ryan was responsible for most of the Whatnots scoring with two timely triples.

Score:

Englewood Pals	251 101 300—13
Whatnots	010 012 210— 8

Batteries—Yandell and Deering, McDonald and Ryan.

Teams wishing games with the Pals may make arrangements by calling George at Republic 1409.

OGDEN TENNIS CLUB PLANS TOURNAMENT

Reorganization of the Ogden Park Tennis club is well under way and plans have been laid to hold a social meeting in the park Field house next Monday evening. There will be dancing and entertainment and arrangements will be completed to hold the club's first tournament, Saturday, June 28.

Much interest has been shown in the reorganization of the club and with the support of the old members and the added strength of the newcomers, the club promises to be one of the most successful in the park.

The tournament will be open to all who wish to enter and Daniel Russell, the park director, promises that a sufficient number of courts will be available to run the matches off without delay.

THOBURN SRS. FAIL TO HIT IN PINCHES; VINCENT M. E. WINS

GAME MARKED BY STEADY PITCHING AND BRILLIANT FIELDING

Inability to hit in the pinches caused Thoburn Seniors to lose a 6 to 4 decision to the Vincent M. E. team at Tuley Park Saturday.

Eunson pitched his usual steady game for Thoburn, striking out nine, but his mates did not give him the customary support when they came to bat. Thompson did brilliant work in left field for Vincent by spearing every long drive that came his way. W. Jung took the fielding honors for Thoburn by showing some flashy playing at short.

PURPLE'S LAST HOPE FOR BALL TITLE VANISHES

Schurz's Victory Over McKinley Cinches Honors for Northsiders

Englewood's last faint hope for the city prep baseball title went aglimmering Monday when Schurz, the north section champ, nosed out McKinley from the west side, 7 to 6. Had Schurz lost the race would have been thrown into a triple tie and the Purple would have another chance at the championship and the right to meet Evander Childs high of New York City in an intersectional contest. But the victory over McKinley gave Schurz undisputed claim to the laurels.

Englewood was practically eliminated from the round robin race Friday when Schurz romped over them for a 11 to 4 win at Nelsen's Park. The Purple team was not playing up to its usual standard and Bob Kaplan whose ability on the mound was largely responsible for the team's progress was not in form.

However, up to the seventh round Englewood gave the north siders a run and kept the count tied at four apiece. Two errors followed by Riebold's double brought in a pair of counters for Schurz in the eighth. This unnerved the Englewood team and after Goodman's error allowed Verberg to reach first he allowed Carlson and Ericson to hit. Richardson attempted to catch Verberg off third and he threw high to Goodman. Monahan failed to come in from left field to pick up the wild toss and all three men on the bases scored. They might have been able to count anyway as Johnson, who was up next, socked out a double. This double was the curtain for Kaplan and Rosenthal was sent in to finish out the spasm. Before he could bring the proceedings to a close two more markers crossed the plate.

Schurz followers celebrated the victory at the close of the game by carrying about the diamond a long black coffin shaped box, representing the departed hopes of Englewood.

PICK GOLF TEAM TO REPRESENT LINDBLOM

Selections made to represent Lindblom high school in the Chicago high schools' annual golf tournament on the Olympia Fields course include Leonard Hall, Rollo La Burge, Tom Durkin and Andrew Jordan. The team is not expected to rate strongly as Durkin is the only lad who has had experience in tournaments on the links. Bob White, prep champion last year, who was expected to be the school's mainstay, will be unable to compete because of scholarship difficulties.

Hall is the star of the Lindblom junior track team and La Burge represented the school on the basketball courts.

Out of the Rough

By Fred S. Clisbee

Article 19

Probably the most useful club in the bag insofar as scoring is effected is the mashie type club. This club is especially adapted for placement shots calling for rare judgment of distance, accurate hitting of the ball and speed control of the swing. You must have all three requirements working together to place the ball where you want it to be. When you have mastered this shot you have an advantage as it is the greatest recovery shot of them all. You may play mediocre shots coming down the fairway 'till you get within mashie range then put the ball up on the green for a reasonable putt.

It is by far the most disconcerting shot your opponent can have as he is never really out of it. You may lead him by a good many yards coming up to the hole or even a stroke still on the green you have your work cut out for you to get a half. So if you want to keep your score down you can well afford the time spent in developing the mashie shot. First I would suggest a check up on yourself to find out just what is lacking in your mashie work. Judge of distance depends not so much on the eye but how well you have catalogued previous shots. If you have stored these various shots in your mind along with the amount of force used to obtain certain distances it is not much of a trick to take a look at the flag and determine in advance the amount of force needed to get you home. You should adopt this plan with all your clubs and know the distances they give you and the amount of punch necessary to give you these distances. This is about the only amount of brain work necessary to play a good game of golf and if you are trying to crowd in a hundred other things while playing your game will suffer for it. Accuracy of hit is necessary or you will not get the maximum distance for the force used. In that case judgment of distance is impossible. Therefore develop your swing to hit the ball accurately, first exerting the force gradually but not beyond a point where an inaccurate hit results. In playing the mashie or any iron club it is important that the swinging club head meets the ball first. Don't have a swing that reaches the extreme low point in back of the ball and either digs in the ground stopping the speed of the club head before the ball is reached or scrapes low for about six or more inches back of the ball and is on the rise when the ball is reached. Educate your stroke to bring the club head at its lowest point right where the ball lies and if the blade reaches the ground the turf will be taken slightly in advance of the ball.

The club head should not dig so deep when turf is taken that it prevents it from carrying on through or your direction will be off. Here is a little tip that may help you get better results with the mashie as well as other iron shots. After you have looked over the shot to be made, selected the club and decided on the amount of swing needed to get you home, when addressing the ball pick a spot about two or three inches ahead of the ball directly in line with the flag. Keep your eye on this spot while making the stroke and until the club head has passed beyond it. This will help you to hit the ball on the down stroke as all irons should be played.
